

When we go to court on December 1st I want to be sentenced to what the Jury already recommended during the penalty phase of the trial. I have already discussed everything with my lawyers and I told them I don't want any more mitigation or arguments being presented. I want to waive mitigation at this hearing and I want to be sentenced to what the Jury voted to give me. My lawyers explained mitigation to me and they explained the consequences of waiving mitigation. It is my decision to waive mitigation at this hearing and I'm writing to put this on the record. I don't want my lawyers to present any mitigation or arguments at this hearing and I am asking this court to sentence me to what the Jury voted for when we go back to court on December 1st. I don't have an issue with the death penalty and I have asked my lawyers to respect my wishes when we go to court.
